DETAILED ACTION

Correction of Inventorship

The request to correct the inventorship of this nonprovisional application under 37 CFR 1.48(a) is deficient because there is no indication of a statement from each person being added as an inventor and from each person being deleted as an inventor that the error in inventorship occurred without deceptive intention on his or her part; lack of deceptive intent.

Specification

This application does not contain an abstract of the disclosure as required by 37 CFR 1.72(b). An abstract on a separate sheet is required.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-16 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-11 of Soled (USPN 6,162,350). Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both sets of claims disclose a hydroprocessing method whereby a feedstock is contacted with a catalyst under hydroprocessing conditions wherein the catalyst contains a non-noble Group VIII metal molybdate in which at least a portion but less than all of the molybdenum is replaced by tungsten. Both sets of claims contain overlapping ratios of a Group VIII metal to molybdenum + tungsten, tungsten to molybdenum, and oxygen. Both sets of claims also possess overlapping temperature ranges, hydrogen pressure, liquid hourly space velocities, and hydrogen treat gas rates. Both sets of claims disclose a hydroprocessing method that selectively removes nitrogen and sulfur containing compounds and other solvent contaminants. Furthermore, both sets of claims discloses a catalyst consisting of a Group VIB metal, a Group VIII metal and an oxide.

It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify ratios of a Group VIII metal to molybdenum + tungsten, tungsten to molybdenum, and oxygen; to modify temperature ranges, hydrogen pressure, liquid hourly space velocities, and hydrogen treat gas rates; and to modify the percentage by weight and the arrangement of the catalyst containing a Group VIB metal, a Group VIII metal and an oxide because reactions taking place under similar conditions are likely to produce similar results.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Soled (USPN 6,156,695). The Soled reference discloses the use of molydotungstate hydrotreating catalysts.
